

FAMILY LEARNING PROGRAM

The Family Learning Program at the Lutheran Church of Saint Mark in Glastonbury, CT, provides a range of educational resources, including ESL courses, GED classes, and the Family Literacy Program. This program includes adult education (GED/ESL), early childhood education, parenting education, and interactive literacy activities for students and their children.

To date, we have helped many families from many different countries, residing in several different towns. Our Family Learning Program has open spots for young children ages 6 weeks to 5 years old. For more information, please contact us at 860-870-6060.
