

Proposal Template

Subject Area: State the general subject area from which you are taking your project, and how it is an important area of study.

Topic: State the topic you will be researching for your project, and what specific kinds of information you want to investigate. State your interests in this topic in the form of questions.

Topic:

Question 1:

Question 2:

Question 3:

Rationale for Topic: State how you chose this topic, and why you believe it is important. What made you choose it above all the others you considered?

Research Approach: What do you believe will be your best sources of information and why?

Proposed Presentation Approach: State what you would like your final product to be, and why you think this will be the best approach.